Statement of services for which the decorations have been awarded.

In July 1958 a party of four armed Naga hostiles led by the notorious Thungti Chang of Tuensang, entered the North Cachar Hills. On the 12th July, a report was received that the party had left Hange village and was proceeding in the direction of Baladhon. This information was conveyed to the Baladhon Police Post shortly after dusk and immediately a patrol party under Sub-Inspector Jitram Sarma started out in search of them. The Police patrol visited Khangnam, Douban and Paisa villages without getting any information and then proceeded towards the village of Chhoto Arkap in torrential rain through very difficult country. They halted on the outskirts of the village while the Dobashi accompanying them brought information from some trustworthy local villagers that 4 Naga hostiles carrying arms and ammunition were taking shelter in the house of the Gaobura. The house was cordoned off by the Police and Sub-Inspector Jitram Sarma, along with Havildar Mohendra Chandra Das and L/NK Bhim Bahadur Rana, entered the room where the hostiles were sleeping with their loaded arms by their sides. As soon as the three police officers entered, one of the hostiles woke up and seeing them took up his loaded sten gun and aimed it at them. At this, Havildar Mohendra Chandra Das opened fire from his T.M.C., and mortally wounded the hostile—later identified as Yeketo Soma "Director of Intelligence, Nagaland"—and took charge of his sten gun and two primed hand grenades. Meanwhile the three other hostiles had awakened and grabbed up their arms whereupon L/NK Bhim Bahadur Rana fired at them with his T.M.C. and inflicted injuries on Thungti Chang and Kaisangba Zemi. Sub-Inspector Jitram Sarma then ordered the hostiles to raise their hands and keeping them covered with his own revolver took possession of their arms including two sten guns and 5 primed hand grenades with the help of L/NK Bhim Bahadur Rana.

These four Naga hostiles were very important persons in the hostile movement, and their capture has been a severe blow to the movement. Sarvashri Jitram Sarma, Mohendra Chandra Das and Bhim Bahadur Rana entered the house knowing that the hostiles were heavily armed and would fight desperately to resist capture. In doing so they exhibited exemplary courage and commendable devotion to duty at great personal risk.

2. These awards are made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carry with them the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police.

No. 52-Pres./59.—The President is pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officers of the Assam Police:—

Name of the Officer and rank

Shri Wickson Lyngdoh, Constable No. 214, 2nd Assam Police, Battalion, Assam.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

In April, 1958, a party of about 20 armed Naga hostiles raided Maibong bazar, Railway Station and Community Development Block Headquarters, looted property and killed a Railway employee. Information of this was received at Lhasong on the morning of the 24th April, 1958. It was immediately decided to despatch 3 platoons to take up positions on routes likely to be used by the hostiles on their return. No 15 Platoon of the 2nd Armed Police Battalion was deputed to Chhoto Laisong village with instructions to establish a base in the village and set up an ambush at the junction of 3 tracks leading to Guilong, Chhoto Nenglo and Chhoto Laisong villages. The platoon reached Chhoto Laisong at about 4 p.m. and the Platoon Commander with two sections proceeded by a jungle path to the track junction to set up the ambush. While he was on his way, the hostiles actually passed the track junction and came towards the village along the main track. Unaware of this the Platoon Commander proceeded with his original plan and set up the ambush with one section, directing the LMG and the bulk of its fire power covering the tracks leading to Guilong and Chhoto Nenglo. He then returned with the other section by the same way as he had come. In the meantime, the hostiles had reached the village and seeing the policemen digging in, retreated along the main track. On hearing this on his return to base, the Platoon Commander immediately sent back the other section to reinforce the section in ambush. The hostiles, however, reached the track junction before that section could be warned. The hostiles opened fire and as a result one constable was killed instantaneously and another injured. The appearance of the hostiles from behind threw our men into some confusion which was made worse by the fading light. In their attempt to take up fresh positions, many of the men, including the LMG numbers and the Section Commanders, fell into a deep gorge and were badly injured with the result that they were unable to take further part in the action.

Constable Wickson Lyngdoh, who was in the rear of the ambush party, with a few other constables, opened fire on the hostiles and shot down two of them. He exhorted the other men to stick to their positions and fight the hostiles. Thanks to his example they were able to hold the hostiles at bay though they were armed only with rifles while the hostiles were using several sten guns. Firing continued for over half an hour in the course of which another hostile was killed and several fell into the gorge. Eventually, the hostile party was beaten off and the survivors fled leaving behind almost all the booty they had taken from Maibong and also a considerable quantity of arms and ammunition.

The gallant part played by Constable Wickson Lyngdoh in this encounter is worthy of the highest commendation. He showed great initiative and leadership and his action turned what might have been a debacle into a victory for the police.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police.

Constable Bhudhor Chandra Deka exhibited commendable courage and devotion to duty in this encounter.
